

Sylvia Bennett – The Timeless Voice is joined by The Three Tenors – Boots Randolph, Ed Calle & Kirk Whalum with their sexy saxes on this album of love songs for all time. “It’s back to real players, back to grass roots. It’s organic music, not amplified, without synthesizers,” says award winning producer Hal S. Batt. The album is loaded with Grammy nominees including Sylvia Bennett for “Sentimental Journey” with Lionel Hampton. Eight-time Grammy nominee Kirk Whalum, two-time Latin Grammy nominee Ed Calle & two-time Latin Grammy nominee Sammy Figueroa are supported by bassist Chuck Bergeron, pianist Brian Murphy & drummer Frank Derrick. Standout tracks include, “Since I Fell for You” which is historic with all three saxophonists together, “My Funny Valentine” with Ed Calle, “Can’t Take That Away From Me,” with Kirk Whalum and “Here’s That Rainy Day with Boots Randolph.

“Songs from the Heart is unplugged, transparent & my soul is exposed.”
-- Sylvia Bennett

“Welcome to the new classic. Songs from the Heart is a collection of unforgettable tunes that create a brilliant stage for Sylvia to shine on with amazing clarity...her warm, sweet & smooth vocal delivery is breathtaking. The natural sonic approach will appeal to music enthusiasts of all ages.”

Sandy Shore, Smoothjazz.com

“Anytime you get an album in and can’t help but add 7 of the 12 tracks on it to your play list, you know you’ve got a great album! It’s a can’t miss combination of a beautiful silky voice and the sensuous sound of three of the all time best sax men in the business that does it.”

Paul Richards, Program Director
WHLL, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut

“Songs from the Heart is not just another jazz vocals album, it is a ground breaking project. Sylvia Bennett creates a perfect marriage of voice and sax singing wonderful jazzy love songs with the help of a cast of luminaries. Bennett charms her way into your heart.”

Edward Blanco, WDNA, Miami

“Sylvia Bennett’s new CD has lit up our telephone lines. She has a unique ability to relate a lyric that affects our audience. She’s an oasis from the troubles in the world.”

Jeff Gehringer, Program Director
KSPA/KFSD Anaheim, CA

“You have not heard a collection of standards sung more passionately than the manner in which Sylvia Bennett delivers them. With the assistance of three of the music industry’s most prolific tenor saxophonists, Bennett & producer Hal S. Batt have created a masterpiece with Songs from the Heart.”

Joe Montague, Riveting Rifts

“Sylvia Bennett is a singer that personifies artistry in the truest sense of the word. Her tone is warm & pleasing to the ear. This album is like shaking hands with a smile as all the players bring their ‘A’ game to the session. There is no need to get the jeweler’s loop out on this record as the performers prove that great music speaks for itself.”
